

To whom it may concern,

10/20/2025

G&R Construction did an office renovation for our corporate office. They created new offices, installed existing and new glass walls and redid our kitchen and multiple other tasks. They showed up every day until the job was completed and finished before our dead line.

I would 100% use G&R again based on their punctuality and hard work to deliver a great product. It isn't easy to find a good general contractor however G&R made this job extremely easy for us and always over communicated with progress and time lines.

Sincerely,
